

Peer Critiquing With Medals and Mission Worksheet

Directions: Place a check mark indicating whether your partner “Didn’t,” “Tried,” or “Did” complete each indicator. Note at least two medals or strengths and one mission to improve. After you complete your peer review, pass the sheet to the next peer reviewer.

| Indicators  | Peer Review 1 |       |     | Peer Review 2 |       |     |
|---|---------------|-------|-----|---------------|-------|-----|
|   | Didn't        | Tried | Did | Didn't        | Tried | Did |
|   |               |       |     |               |       |     |
|   |               |       |     |               |       |     |
|   |               |       |     |               |       |     |
|   |               |       |     |               |       |     |
|   |               |       |     |               |       |     |
|   |               |       |     |               |       |     |
| Medals (Strengths)     |               |       |     |               |       |     |
| Missions (To Improve)  |               |       |     |               |       |     |

Source: Adapted from Hewes, B. (2012, October 17). Feedback, feed-forward, peer-assessment and project-based learning [Blog post]. Accessed at <https://biancabewes.wordpress.com/2012/10/17/feedback-feed-forward-peer-assessment-and-project-based-learning> on September 6, 2018.