

Figure 4.1: Assessment Audit Template

	Assessments	Purpose and Use of Each Assessment	Grade Level, Frequency, and Timing
National Standardized Assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • AP exams • SAT or ACT • National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP)
State Assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ELA—Reading • ELA—Writing • Mathematics • Science
District Assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Progress-monitoring assessments • Early literacy • Diagnostic • Benchmark or interim
Common End-of-Unit Assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unit test • Performance • Essay
Common Formative Assessments (Mid-Unit)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quiz • Observations • Exit ticket
Classroom Formative Assessments (During Lessons)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Checks for understanding • Observations • Students sharing thinking • Examples include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whiteboard activities • Journal writing • Group discussions • Think-pair-share • Games
Other			