1. Review your priority standards. Which ones do you need to review? Which ones need more teaching?
2. Which priority standards do you need to teach at the end of the year so students are ready for next year?
3. Identify what to review or teach related to priority standards each day, and what lessons (if any) you need to address on the calendar. What are the learning targets for each day?

Calendar to the End of the Year— Which priority standards will students continue to learn in preparation for next year? What is the learning target or lesson for each day? Block off days for state or district testing, holidays, students’ last day of school, professional development days, and so on.
