

What's the Subtext? Worksheet

Instructions: Read the quote in the Evidence box. In the space provided, rewrite the quote in your own words or write a question this quote evokes for you. In the second row, write the subtext—the unsaid information you can deduce from the quote. Finally, in the bottom row, provide proof or state factual information that supports your reading of the subtext.

Rewrite the quote in your own words. (Or write what questions it sparks for you.)

Evidence:

What's the subtext?

Where's the proof? (Or what are the facts?)

Rewrite the quote in your own words. (Or write what questions it sparks for you.)

Evidence:

What's the subtext?

Where's the proof? (Or what are the facts?)