

Self-Rating Scale for Trust-Building Measures

As you consistently work on building relationships in your school, take some time to reflect on your work in building trust with your staff members, students, and school families. Use the following template to self-rate your current level of implementation for each area.

Trust-Building Measures	Consistent Implementation	Approaching Consistent Implementation	Average Implementation	Sporadic Implementation	Marginal or No Implementation
Be vulnerable.
Avoid using predictive trust.
Avoid using the fundamental attribution error.
Be reliable.
