

Figure 2.12: Rubric for Reimagined Text

Craft and Analysis

Includes an interesting title that enhances overall meaning, and the sentence frame underneath the title indicates the purpose of this reimagined story (such as My prequel/sequel/spin-off/reimagining adds/changes _____ in order to show/express _____.)	_____ /3 points
Begins with a compelling hook to draw the reader into this reimagined addition to or adaptation of the text	_____ /2 points
Includes proper context and the reimagining is consistent with the text	_____ /5 points
Seamlessly incorporates at least one direct quote from the original text	_____ /5 points
Conveys new message in a clear and compelling way	_____ /5 points

Insight and Creativity

Engaging premise that captures the reader's attention	_____ /5 points
Insightful adaptation that also incorporates aspects of the author's craft in the original text	_____ /5 points

Clarity of Language and Style

Precision, descriptive language, word choice, and conventions of standard English	_____ /5 points
Varied and complex sentence structure	_____ /5 points

Knowledge of Language and Conventions

Organized, clear progression of ideas	_____ /5 points
Meets length requirement (600–800 words)	_____ /5 points

Total Points:	_____ /50 points
----------------------	------------------