

Continue Your Journal

After a few days of using positive narration, answer the following questions.

How are you finding that positive narration reinforces your directions?

How is the tone in your classroom different after introducing narration?

How has positive narration impacted off-task behavior?

Which students is positive narration working for? Are there students it isn't working for?

Are you experiencing any struggles with positive narration? If so, how might you make adjustments?