

Keep a Journal

We have all had No-Nonsense Nurturers as teachers. Take some time to journal about, reflect on, and discuss with a colleague a teacher who made a difference in your life.

How did this teacher impact you?

What did he or she do to support you academically and as a person?

How did this person shape you as an individual?

What qualities does he or she have that you would like to implement in your classroom tomorrow?