

Use a Positive Narration Log

After you give precise directions, scan for compliance rather than defiance, and use positive narration. Notice how positive narration is strengthening your relationships with specific students. Log your observations in the following chart.

Student name	How did the student respond to positive narration?	Are any adjustments needed? If so, what?	How is this building a better relationship?