

Tool 11: SQ3R Organizer

SQ3R stands for Survey, Question, Read, Recite, and Review. This graphic organizer spans the entire lesson—beginning, middle, and end, and is extremely effective during the reading of nonfiction text.

Name _____

Topic or Story Title:
SURVEY	QUESTION	READ	RECITE
Record important titles and subtitles from chapter sections.	Write who, what, when, where, and why questions for the main topics and subtopics.	After reading, write answers to the five questions that were written.	Record additional interesting facts related to the five questions to complement the information that was discovered during the reading.
Review: On the reverse side, compose a one-paragraph summary for each of the questions that were answered. Use this as a study guide.
