

Encouraging Student Reflection in the Classroom

Do you encourage the students in your class to reflect on themselves? If not, how might you start?

How comfortable are you with guiding students to reflect on themselves when it comes to schoolwork? What about with topics outside of school?

Is there anything from this chapter you would like to apply to help you guide student reflection?