Sorting Out a Problem

You are trying to play in the play kitchen with a group of children. One student won't share the oven. This means that no one else can have a turn at cooking.	You are playing with the trucks in the sandbox. A student is throwing sand up in the air, and it is getting in your eyes.
You are cutting and gluing at the craft table. You need to use the scissors and the glue, and there is only one of each on the table. Another student is cutting at your table and will not let you use the glue.	There is a new special book on the shelf, and you and another student want to read it. You both grab the book and start fighting over it. The other student kicks you, hurting your leg.
