

Build Decision-Making Processes

As school leaders face a growing number of complex decisions, it is essential to establish a clear and consistent framework for decision making. The following table offers a chance to practice applying a consistent framework to your current leadership decisions.

Decision or Issue	Urgency and Impact (High, Medium, Low)	Key Faculty and Staff Members	Alignment With Values and Goals (Yes, No)	Final Decision and Next Steps