

Assess Your Approach to College and Career Prep

What is your school's focus for students' lives after graduation? (Circle one.)	College	Career	Both
Describe your school or district's goals for and approach to preparing students for life after high school. What does it do well? What could it do better?
Does your school have programs to help students enter college or get career training? (Circle all that apply.)	College-preparatory programs	Career-training programs	Neither
Describe the strategies these programs use. Do they have the resources necessary to achieve their goals? How could they improve?
How often do you bring up graduation, college, and career in your day-to-day teaching? (Circle one.)	At least once a week	At least once a month	Rarely or never
Describe your strategies for addressing graduation and post-graduate life in your teaching. What could you do to make these a larger emphasis?			