Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Dear Gateway Student,

Please complete the CHAMPS page and “blank table.” It is your responsibility to respect the office staff by working quietly. This work must be finished. You will not meet with the principal or return to class if you do not complete these assignments. If you have any questions, you can ask a staff member politely by saying, “Excuse me.” Thank you.

Sincerely,
Gateway Staff

CHAMPS Page

Directions: Carefully read CHAMPS: “Waiting in the Office.” Then, complete the blank CHAMPS table and reflection.

Student Reflection

Directions: Complete each sentence. Think carefully about your answers. A principal or staff member will review your responses.

1. Waiting in the office is a consequence of your choices. Describe the specific choices you made which led to this consequence.

2. How do your choices compare to the Guidelines for Success (respectful, positive, productive, proud)? Provide specific details that explain how your choices may not match our Guidelines for Success.

3. Describe some other choices you could have made. Discuss how these alternate choices may lead to more positive outcomes in the future.

4. My choices impact myself and others in the following ways:

5. Instead of making these negative choices, I could have made a more positive decision. I should have:

6. Develop a consequence for your choices. Defend your idea by explaining why this consequence is fair to you, other students, and the school staff.
