

Chapter 7: Questions for Reflection

Write your responses to the following questions. Keep these responses in mind as you work to address challenging student behaviors and guide your students toward academic engagement and motivated learning.

1. Can you see yourself implementing opportunities to respond within your classroom? Why or why not?
2. Describe what you believe the biggest obstacles could be when implementing opportunities to respond with your students. What could you do to overcome the obstacles?
3. Describe what you believe the biggest benefits could be when implementing opportunities to respond with your students.
4. What are some potential reinforcers that you can use in your classroom to support your students while implementing opportunities to respond?

5. What system could you put into place to ensure you call on all students equally?

6. What method would you prefer to use when implementing opportunities to respond? Examples include response cards, digital responses, and choral responses.

7. Think of an activity or subject area where you would like to try to use opportunities to respond. How will you engage your students in opportunities to respond, and what questions will you ask?

8. How will you pair students to best promote academic and social growth in each student?

9. After implementing opportunities to respond in your classroom, consider this: Did you have any challenges?

10. Thinking about the challenges, what adjustments or changes could be made to make opportunities to respond work better for you?