

Theme Cards

| |
|---|
| 1. Where people live can affect them. |
| 2. Isolationism might be vital to a community's survival. |
| 3. Isolationism leads to loneliness and stagnation. |
| 4. Lack of knowledge and worldliness leads to ignorance. |
| 5. An ignorant, uneducated society can be easily controlled. |
| 6. Ignorance and lack of a frame for comparison lead to mediocrity. |
| 7. Individual rights are secondary to the protection or well-being of the entire community. |
| 8. Lack of competition controls jealousy and envy. |
| 9. Individual differences lead to inequality. |
| 10. People grant individuals with power and prestige more rights and leeway than others. |
| 11. Individuals with power control information. |
| 12. The human heart yearns for connection. |
| 13. Secrecy leads to suspicion and doubt. |
| 14. Lack of choice or empowerment leads to apathy. |
| 15. Power may be used or abused. |
| 16. Relationships change over time. |
| 17. All relationships serve a particular purpose whether for good or bad. |

18. Nuclear families do not always guarantee enduring relationships.
19. Intolerance leads to unspeakable actions.
20. Friendships can be tried and tested.
21. Individual needs can be in conflict with the needs of a community.
22. Vocational choice should be based on individual talents and skills.
23. Arranged marriages create harmony in a community.
24. Euthanasia is an acceptable and humane practice.
25. Human beings give themselves permission to change the environment for their benefit.
26. Through exploration, people confront the unknown and broaden their perspective.
27. People mature and change as a result of a significant life experience.
28. Utopia creates a sense of security.
29. The goal of utopia is to erase societal problems.
30. Individuality comes at a cost.
31. Judgments based on little evidence lead to hurtful or damaging consequences.
32. Diversity can be celebrated and valued.
33. Well-intentioned actions can sometimes lead to negative consequences.
34. Through positive thoughts and earnest attempts, the impossible can sometimes happen.
35. People who have a passion will do almost anything to feed it.