

Chapter 8: Ride the Wave, Strategy 1

Imagine there is a new principal at your school. This principal has four questions to ask of each faculty member. How would you, as a teacher, respond to each of these questions if this new principal were to interview you? Record your answers.

Question 1: What do you expect of me?

Your answer:

Question 2: What is your preferred method of communication or resolution of an issue?

Your answer:

Question 3: What administrative practices raise your anxiety as a classroom teacher?

Your answer:

Question 4: If you were in my seat, what one change would you make to this school today?

Your answer:

Now the roles are reversed. What questions would you like to ask a new principal? Try to list four to five questions.