

Chapter 8: Ride the Wave, Strategy 4

Create an interview form in which administrators and staff can ask each other questions as a basis for forming deeper professional relationships. Include the following four questions on the interview form, and be sure to add two to three of your own.

Question 1: Who or what influenced your decision to go into education as a profession?

Question 2: In your work, what is your greatest source of joy on a daily basis?

Question 3: What is something you would like to see remedied on our campus or in our building?

Question 4: What is the most surprising thing about teaching you never could have predicted?

Question 5:
