

Chapter 3 Discussion Questions

1. What are collective commitments, and how can they support learning for all students?
2. What collective commitments should your district or school have in order to fully support your stated mission and vision?
3. Where might your organization run into resistance when trying to get everyone to commit to a few key student learning and adult behavior initiatives? How can this resistance be handled positively?
4. How will the organization share these collective commitments with all stakeholders?
