

Chapter 6 Reflection Worksheet

Learning Target

My job after reading this chapter is to gain an understanding of the integral part setting goals and celebrating progress play in making positive changes to an organization.

Success Criteria

- ▶ I can explain why goal setting as an organization is important to its long-term growth.
- ▶ I understand the role celebrating small wins can play in improving classroom practices.
- ▶ I work with the guiding coalition to set goals for the organization and plan celebrations for the staff which will create a greater sense of community.

I would restate the learning target for this chapter in this way:

If I had to pick one idea or concept from this chapter that really stands out, it would be:

The concept or idea that sparks my imagination is:

Those imaginative ideas are:

The success criterion that gives me the biggest challenge is:

Steps I can take to help overcome that challenge are: