

Warm-Ups—Uncorrected (Days 11–15)

Allison (cont.)

Day 11

My mom had went to a consert in san antonio with her sisters' I staid home to take care of my little sister. We were sitting on the couch watching tv that night it started raining.

Day 12

I rolled my eyes thinking great now the yard is gonna be muddy and my baby sister won't not be able to play outside tomorrow I guess I have to think of some thing else to do, it kept raining.

Day 13

And it kept raining. I noticed the water start seeping in from under the door. I put down some towel to soak it up but it keep raining.

Day 14

By midnight water was creeping into the house and I couldn't sleep and I didn't know what to do and around five in the morning, the water inside the house is up to my knees. And it kept raining.

Day 15

I tried to call for help, but not one of the phone lines worked. By late morning, the water was up to my waist, and it kept rising.