

Self-Reflecting on Our Classroom Norms

Earlier during the school year, we worked together to create a set of classroom norms. Those norms are promises that we made to each other to ensure that we have a great school year together. Answer the questions below to reflect on how well you are honoring our classroom norms.

Step 1: Give Yourself an Overall Rating

Shade the number in the rating bar below that best represents your work toward honoring our classroom norms.

I NEVER honor our classroom norms.	1	2	3	4	5	I ALWAYS honor our classroom norms.
---	---	---	---	---	---	--

Step 2: Reflection Questions

Answer the questions below to think more about the work that you are doing to honor our classroom norms.

Question	Your Response
Which classroom norm do you do the best job honoring?
Why is this norm easy for you to honor?
Which classroom norm do you struggle to honor?
What makes it difficult for you to honor this norm?
Who does a great job honoring the norm that you struggle with?
How is his or her behavior or his or her choices different from yours in this area?
What changes are you going to make in the next few weeks to improve your efforts to honor our classroom norms?	