Reflection and Discussion Tool for School Leaders on the Landscape

Complete the following as an individual or with your school or district team.

Goal	Score and Evidence 0 = Not at all 5 = Consistently	Reflections on the School's Current Strengths	Opportunities for Improvement
Educators at our school regularly engage with every student with an asset mindset.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school know all students well enough to challenge each of them appropriately.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school know students well enough to support their individual growth in areas of weakness.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school define the horizon with every student and their family in ways that leverage their talents.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school define the horizon with every student and their family in ways that honor their values.	Score: Evidence:

The Landscape Model of Learning © 2022 Solution Tree Press • SolutionTree.com
Visit go.SolutionTree.com/diversityandequity to download this page.

Goal	Score and Evidence 0 = Not at all 5 = Consistently	Reflections on the School's Current Strengths	Opportunities for Improvement
Educators at our school work with students to build a classroom culture of trust and agency.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school chart a personal (and personalized) pathway in collaboration with every student.	Score: Evidence:
Our students are protagonists who document their own learning journeys.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school use a variety of formative evaluation strategies to foster reflection and growth.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school support all students' ability to leverage their talents and grow in areas of weakness.	Score: Evidence:
Educators at our school bring out the best in every student they work with.	Score: Evidence:

The Landscape Model of Learning © 2022 Solution Tree Press • SolutionTree.com
Visit go.SolutionTree.com/diversityandequity to download this page.